

Please do not over turn the privacy act. It has been absolutely wonderful not to have the interuptions we used to experience every evening! If they want to sell us something, let them use the mail system. Increasing the mail should then help the post office who swears they're going bankrupt.